We also want to request $750 to help cover food for the event (in conjunction with other donation sources). Here's the event theme: Together We Paint This Country is a collaborative evening event to celebrate our immigrant communities at Palomar College. The event will showcase student creativity and create opportunities for connection, reflection, and engagement across disciplines and communities.

Motion: Senator Sabaghian
Second: Delegate Vanzzini
Discussion:
Delegate Morrison shares that this event could be supported by the funds.
Trustee Friedman checks in with VPF on how much money is left.
VPF Farrington shares that there is $750 currently spent on previous items.
EVP Hussain asked what the projected attendance is
The presenter shares that there were ten tables from just one class; they are aiming for twenty tables for this event.
EVP Hussain asks how many people in one ESL class
Present shares that there are around 25-30 people per class
VP Tscherne: Asks how fundraising efforts are moving forward.
Presenter: Dr. Belisle offered $750, PFF $750, CCE $750, and they are going to be asking the Foundation next.
Shared that any donation is helpful; however, $3k is a good target for total funds
Senator Sheekh-Qader asks what the "etcetera" means in the description for the event
Presenter shares they may do a food truck, and the event is still a WIP
Delegate Vanzzini asks how much money ASG has for budgeting
President Woolridge shares we have $2450 remaining in our Highlighting Communities budget.
Delegate Vanzzini considers pledging half the money instead of the full $750

Trustee Friedman proposes $100-$200 dollars
Presenter considers that satisfactory

Motion to amend from $750 to $300 by VP Tscherne
Second: Delegate Vanzinni
Discussion:
VP Crouch still feels $300 feels like it's too high
EVP Hussain agrees with VP Crouch; feels it would be a significant amount for them, but perhaps too much for the ASG budget
VP Tscherne says that $300 is a fair number which will help bring the presenter to $2,500 in total for the goal of their event.
Delegate Morrison: Shares experience working with Hispanic people and urges support for $350
Trustee Fridman reminds the ASG body about voting and discussion
Senator Moon: Shares that this won't be the first or last event; it would be great to support all events but looking at our budget and our role is to help many different groups and to keep it fair to represent all groups on campus.
Senator Sheekh-Qader agrees with others and says that $300 is a good middle ground considering budget and support
Delegate Vanzinni: Agrees with Senator Moon and Senator Sheekh-Qader and feels that we need to find a good balance and feels like $250 would be a helpful balance.
VP Farrington: Feels that $250 would be good and based on his experience and opinion that there are many ways for ASG to support also beyond funds but also on outreach and communications.
Delegate Morrison questions why we may be offering $250 instead of $300, how much difference the $50 makes.
Aye Votes: 0
Nay Votes: 15
Senator Brisby and Senator Sheek-Qader abstain
Motion Fails

Motion to amend amount down to $250: VP Tyra Crouch
